Sid Grauman's Manhattan Prologue Plus Goldwyn's "Roman Scandals" Grauman Chinese Holiday Sensation

Cartoonist Billy Cam gives his pictorial impressions of Eddie Cantor, star of "Roman Scandals," and the prologue attractions presented by Sid Grauman at the far famed Hollywood palace of the cinema. The run will be closing soon. Many claim it is the best Grauman prologue yet offered.

Walter Winchell, Broadway columnist whose today's gossip is tomorrow's scandal, is author of the story of "Broadway Thru a Keyhole," the United Artists release produced by 20th Century and featuring Constance Cummings, Russ Columbo, Paul Kelly, Blossom Seeley, Abe Lyman and his band, Gregory Ratoff, Texas Guinan, Eddie Foy, Jr., and Frances Williams at the Torrance Theatre today, Friday and Saturday.

Reveals Self

"Broadway Thru a Keyhole" has a background of night clubs and shows how a sweet and innocent young girl rose to fame, was befriended by a handsome young racketeer and finally became the wife of a famous radio crooner. Because of the night club background of the yarn, the picture was filmed as a musical with a large dancing chorus and such musical comedy and vaudeville stars as Frances Williams, Eddie Foy, Jr., and Barto and Mann doing their dancing and singing stuff. Other famous Broadway personalities are Blossom Seeley, Texas Guinan and Abe Lyman and his band.

Heads Stellar Cast

In "Female," the new First National film coming to the Torrance Theatre Sunday and Monday, December 17 and 18, Ruth Chatterton, its popular star, will be seen in a bathing suit for the first time in films. George Brent plays opposite her. "Walls of Gold," starring Sally Eilers, will also be shown Sunday and Monday at Torrance, making an enticing double feature program.

Vivacious Bette Davis heads a stellar cast in "Bureau of Missing Persons," which comes to the Lomita Theatre, Friday and Saturday, December 15 and 16.

New Play Opens At Belasco On Christmas Night

"Love Chisellers," a new play by George James Hopkins, is slated to open at the Belasco Theatre Christmas night. J. H. Morton, who will produce the play, is a new comer to Los Angeles, but has had considerable experience in connection with productions in New York and elsewhere. Mr. Morton, after reading in the neighborhood of 100 plays, selected the Hopkins story as the one most fitting to open his season at the Belasco. A carefully selected cast is being readied to present this laugh-provoking comedy, which is quite modern and up to the minute. The author is here in person to supervise the presentation and Augustin J. Glassmire, who is favorably known as a director of many hits will stage the production. In addition to "Love Chisellers," Mr. Morton invades the local field firmly convinced that other plays he has selected will be favorably received, with the initial offering giving some idea of the style of entertainment he will endeavor to offer theatre goers.
